Global Interconnection Ecosystem

Thursday, 19 November 2020 13:40 (30 minutes)

“Successful businesses are those that evolve rapidly and effectively,” Moore wrote. “Yet innovative businesses can’t evolve in a vacuum. They must attract resources of all sorts, drawing in capital, partners, suppliers, and customers to create cooperative networks.” My presentation will address the entire global interconnection ecosystem and all its actors in a language that is simple to approach and understand.
